

State	Measurement Standard	Mitigation Standard	Notes
California
Colorado	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	ANSI/AARST SGM-SF-2017
New Mexico			No standard required by the state- they go off of the EPA recommends ANSI/AARST standards
Nebraska	EPA 401-R-92-004 and EPA 402-R-93-003	EPA 402-R-93-078	Plans to change it to ANSI/AARST-waiting to be signed by the governor
Kansas	EPA 401-R-92-004 and EPA 402-R-93-003	EPA 402-R-93-078	Plans to change it to ANSI/AARST-waiting to be signed by the governor
Minnesota	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	ANSI/AARST SGM-SF-2017
Iowa	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	EPA 402-R-93-078
Indiana	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	ANSI/AARST SGM-SF-2017
Virginia	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	ANSI/AARST SGM-SF-2017	"Any other radon testing/mitigation standard accepted by the EPA"
West Virginia	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	ANSI/AARST SGM-SF-2017	refer them to AARST but no law required for standard
Kentucky	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	ANSI/AARST SGM-SF-2017	"Standard operating procedure" means a written document established by an accredited American National Standards Institute development organization that describes in detail commonly accepted methods for the performance of certain tasks associated with radon measurement, mitigation, or laboratory analysis.
Maine	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	ANSI/AARST SGM-SF-2017	All radon service providers shall conform to the minimum performance standards set forth by EPA in their Radon Proficiency Programs

Pennsylvania	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	ANSI/AARST SGM-SF-2017	PA DEP has adopted the Multi family radon measurements and mitigation 2018 ANSI-AARST standards for multifamily buildings in state of PA.
Rhode Island	MAH 2014	ASTM E2121-12	Radon Control 216-RICR-50-15-2
Connecticut	Has own set of standards	Has own set of standards	Recommend ANSI/AARST guidelines be followed, it is an aim to have reference to ANSI/AARST (Listed for qualified must be certified through NRPP or NRSB and a home improvement contractor registration for mitigators)
New Jersey	ANSI/AARST MAH-2019	ANSI/AARST SGM-SF-2017
Delaware			No standard required by the state- voluntary list of testing and mitigation companies to get on the list must be certified through EPA organizations. Delaware business license, must supply a copy of QC plan and a copy of certifications, other requirement is a monthly report of sampling/mitigation performed
Illinois	Own Standards in Law-Illinois Administrative Code Title 32 - ENERGY Part 422 - REGULATIONS FOR RADON SERVICE PROVIDERS	Own Standards in Law-Illinois Administrative Code Title 32 - ENERGY Part 422 - REGULATIONS FOR RADON SERVICE PROVIDERS	Own Standards in Law-Illinois Administrative Code Title 32 - ENERGY Part 422 - REGULATIONS FOR RADON SERVICE PROVIDERS

Florida	EPA 402-R-92-003	Appendix E of Florida Building Code Chapter 9B-53	intend to adopt ANSI/AARST measurement protocols later this year
Ohio	appendix A to rule 3701-69-07	appendix to rule 3701-69-08	Ohio set of rules (based from old EPA standards) Licensees are required to submit standard operating procedures for performing measurements/mitigation in multifamily, school, and commercial buildings. The applicable ANSI/AARST standards are generally accepted as those standard operating procedures.